Smith, Under Arrest in Birmingham, Will Resist Extradition to North Carolina.

HEARING IN CASE TO-DAY

Nothing Further Heard as to Whereabouts of Vice-President Tarver.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., April 13 .- News came to-day from Birmingham, Ala., that Ector H. Smith, president of the State Trust Company, Wilmington, much wanted by the North Carolina Corporation Commission for fraudulent quality and worth in a suit than banking practices, is resisting extradi-tion. Police Officer J. A. Bailey went from Raleigh Friday evening, armed you pay-from $15 to $40. with requisition papers, to bring Smith back. This afternoon he telegraphed the authorities here that Smith had the authorities here that Smith had counsel to resist extradition, and that the Governor of Alabama will give a hearing in the case at 11 o'clock Monday morning. It is likely that the Corporation Commission or Attorney-General Beckett will arrange for com-petent counsel to present the case for North Carolina at the hearing before the Alabama Governor.

the Alabama Governor.

Nothing further has been heard from Vice-President Tarver, of the State Trust Company. He and counsel were reported to have left Augusta Friday evening, presumably for Raleigh. His counsel, a Mr. Pierce, was in Raleigh for a very short time Saturday, quietly investigating the charge against his client, but gave no indication as to the whereabouts of Tarver. Nothing developed to indicate whether or not he considered it safe whether or not he considered it safe. whether or not he considered it safe for Tarver to voluntarily come back and fight cases the Corporation Com-mission and "certain" citizens have against him and his associates in the unique banking scheme exposed so soon after its inception.

Will Visit Richmond.

Hon. J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will go Monday to Richmond for the Conference of Education for the South, in session there next week.

He says the indications are for an exceptionally large attendance from North Carolina on the part of men and women engaged in all the educational activities that the vast scope of the conference includes. Dr. Joyner carries with him an invitation on the part of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce and other commercial bodies of the city for the conference to commerce. city for the conference to come to Ra-leigh for its next annual meeting. Dr. Joyner is sure that this conference will prove the largest and most effective yet held. Some idea of the vast scope of the work is gathered from the fact that the official program includes spe-cial conferences by farmers, business men, conference on taxation, on cooperation of farmers; co-operative lo-cal credit associations; on country church work; Conference of Southern Editors; on the education of the negro; on education of the women in the country; interstate conference of country superintendents. county superintendents; conferences of State superintendents; supervisors of rural schools; supervisors of State rural schools; supervisors of State high school inspectors; farm demonstration workers; rural school improvement workers; workers in health and sanitation effort. There will be an exhibit showing the activities and progress of rural schools in the South.
